Our story starts with parents witnessing the agony of eczema in their own child and their friends' children. Jai and Aditi, upon failing to find an effective non-steroid solution, rolled up their sleeves and got to work - and Curezma was born.

Curezma is Australia's first non-steroid eczema care that not only relieves the symptoms of eczema, but also aids your skin's natural healing process.

We're so glad you found us, and we hope Curezma can help you on your journey to reclaim your life.
